

I'm Jewish wherever I go, but as Jewish people, the Temple is a special MAKOM we can come to to be together with other Jews.

Everyone has special times in their lives, but as Jewish people, we have special ZMANIM in our week and our year that we celebrate, and we have particular Jewish ways of doing so.

A-year

There are lots of books in the world, but as Jewish people, we have the Torah scroll with Jewish stories and rules that we can learn from.

Our Jewish ZMANIM connect us to ISRAEL.

Many people believe in God, but as Jewish people we have special stories about GOD and special Jewish ways of talking with God.

B-year

Our families have connections to many different places in the world, but as Jewish people we have a special connection to ISRAEL, which is the only Jewish country in the world.

Everybody has a name, but as a Jewish person, I have a special Jewish SHEM that is used at special times in my life.
