

MISSION STATEMENT

Where community is at our core

Where Jewish living is creative, inclusive, joyful and intergenerational

Where children are nurtured and treasured

Where we reach out beyond our congregation to help improve the world

Where “member2member” is the essence of mutual support

Where “green” is more than a color

Where Jewish tradition and culture inform the present

Where learning is a lifelong endeavor

Where values translate into action