

YOM KIPPUR

We read
Jacqueline Jules'
The Hardest Word
to spark a conversation
about
apologizing
for our actions.

WE SAY SORRY WHEN...

It means when you make
some trouble, you say it.
Because it's a good word.
AIDA

When you hurt someone.
ALI

When someone pushes someone and all 5 1/2 of
them fall.
THEO

When you break
somebody's toy.
MICHAEL

One time i pushed my brother and said sorry so
he will feel better.
ELLIE

WHY DO WE SAY SORRY?

It's a nice word when people get hurt. You be respectful on Yom Kippur
and you always say sorry.
RYAN

It's good to say sorry
because it makes someone
feel better. When friends are being mean they have to say sorry to you so you can feel better.
SHAYNA

Because you are sad if you hurt somebody. Like when I hurted my brother I feeled bad but when I said
sorry, I feeled happy.
GIDEON

WHAT ARE MISTAKES?

I told my friend not to hit
his brother in the New Year.
RUBY

It's was mistake because
we didn't mean to do it.
ZOE

Sometimes grownups
make mistakes.
SAMMY

Leora made a mistake
when she put too much
flour during cooking.
DYLAN

Once I didn't clean up
my room before a
playdate.
EMMA

Momma says we have
to organize because we
always forget to clean
our room.
NATE

Once I didn't do the right thing in ballet.
ELLA

Sometimes when you are making a pattern you put
the wrong color - that is a mistake.
OSCAR

HOW DO WE FIX THEM?

One day I was playing with Dylan and I smashed
him in the face playing
ball, but I hugged him.
JAKE

Say sorry. Hug your friend! SKYLAR

WHY IS SORRY SO HARD?

Sometimes if you make
an accident it's too hard
to say sorry.
NOAH

OCTOBER 5, 2011

Questions to Think About:

Why is saying you're sorry so difficult?

When do we/should we say we're sorry?

What are mistakes? How can we fix them?

Why do we say we're sorry?

